

We hope the Administration will refrain from orchestrating any further interference in the referendum question and will instead allow Taiwan's political leaders, political parties and people to make this decision on their own. The people of Taiwan have earned the right to conduct their elections without coercion from our government, the government of the People's Republic of China, or anyone else – and we should respect their right to do so.

Sincerely,

Tom Tancredo, M.C.

Dana Rohrabacher, M.C.